

As an amateur licensee (K3PRR) I support the immediate dropping of all Morse code testing requirements for amateur licenses. It is a disappearing medium as the digital revolution encompasses all communications media.